

2016 GREEN EGGS & SAND Workshop on Delaware Bay

Looking to infuse a globally-significant ecological phenomenon and current real-world resource management controversy into your classroom?

Interested in meeting and learning firsthand from a select and diverse group of experts and stakeholders offering a wealth of knowledge and experience with the issues?

Take part in an intensive, full-weekend, not-to-be-missed, field-enriched workshop during the peak horseshoe crab spawning and shorebird-viewing time on Delaware Bay in May.

Take home the award-winning, recently-revised-and-updated middle school & high school targeted, video and hands-on-activity-rich, Green Eggs & Sand curriculum.

Where: Mallard Lodge (Smyrna, DE) and St. Jones Reserve (Dover, DE)

When: Friday, May 20 (starting at 6 PM) through Sunday, May 22 (ending at noon), 2016

Who to contact: Gary Kreamer: (302) 735-8665; gary.kreamer@state.de.us

Fee: $100, covers all meals, lodging (Friday/Saturday) and all workshop materials

More about the workshop: The Green Eggs & Sand workshop commences with dinner Friday evening and ends at noon on Sunday. Interspersed with expert presenters on horseshoe crabs (HSCs), shorebirds, biomedical use of HSCs, and HSC management, are sessions that explore the GE&S curriculum and provide demonstrations of the rich assortment of activities it offers. Field trips to Delaware Bay beaches are a special highlight of the weekend: including the opportunity to observe HSCs spawning at night, a day trip to a Bay beach to observe HSC eggs and shorebird feeding, and a visit with a local fisherman who uses HSCs for bait.

About the lodging: Lodging is provided at the Delaware ARE Center's Mallard Lodge facility. This features rustic shared bunk rooms of varying sizes and common bathroom/shower areas. Beds are twin-size, bunk-style; participants are asked to bring their own bed linens, blanket and pillow. Sleeping areas are not air-conditioned. Although these and other conditions may challenge the comfort level of those accustomed to more privacy, the trade-off comes in being on-hand after workshop hours to socialize/network with experts and fellow participants. For those who seek alternative accommodations, a list of nearby motels is available. Reservations for such are to be made by individuals at their own expense, with the understanding that this does not reduce the workshop registration fee. Please indicate your lodging preferences, along with any special dietary or accommodation needs in the spaces below. Space is limited and registrations are taken on a first-come-first-serve basis. No-shows or cancellations that do not provide at least 2 weeks prior-to-workshop notice result in a forfeiture of registration fees. Full attendance at all workshop sessions is required for receipt of the curriculum package.
