APPLICATION TO TRANSFER A NEW JERSEY SPECIES PERMIT

New Jersey permits currently revoked, suspended or having violations pending are not transferable.

Section I - Replacement Vessel

1. If you are a current New Jersey permit holder, and are replacing your existing permitted vessel with a new vessel, please complete Section I of the application.
2. Provide all requested information for the owner/company, the vessel being replaced and your new vessel.
3. The new vessel must not be greater than 10% larger in length, gross registered tonnage and net tonnage and not more than 20% greater in horsepower as compared to the originally permitted vessel. You must provide copies of Certificate of Documentation, vessel registration or other documentation to prove tonnage and length and ownership of the new vessel. Please be reminded that the vessel being replaced is no longer eligible for a New Jersey permit under the same harvesting history used to qualify for the original permit.
4. New Jersey American Lobster permits are exempt from the vessel limitations in #3 when transferring a lobster permit.
5. Sign and date the application where indicated for Section I.

Section II - Sale of Vessel or Transfer of Shad Permit

1. If a New Jersey permitted vessel is being sold, and the permit is being transferred with the vessel to a new owner, please complete Section II of the application.

If a New Jersey American shad permit is being transferred to an eligible family member, please complete Section II of the application. New Jersey shad permit holders are exempt from supplying vessel documentation when transferring a shad permit.

2. Provide all requested information for the previous owner, new owner, and the vessel being sold.
3. Include vessel documentation as proof of ownership. Please be reminded that the seller of the vessel is no longer eligible for a New Jersey permit based on the seller's harvesting history with the vessel being sold.
4. The seller and buyer must sign and date the application where indicated for Section II.
